

DEUTSCHLANDSTIPENDIUM at htw saar

The University of Applied Sciences in Saarbrücken (htw saar), with the support of the StudienStiftungSaar, awards the scholarship "Deutschlandstipendium". Within the funding programme of the Federal Ministry of Research, Technology and Space, these scholarships are financed equally by the federal government and private scholarship patrons.

The scholarship includes

- ✓ Scholarship: 300 € per month (for two semesters)
- ✓ Non-financial support: Personal development, career preparation, networking, and more
- ✓ Access to a network of students, companies, institutions, and universities, including a meet-and-greet with the scholarship patrons

Important!

- You must be enrolled at htw saar (bzw. DFHI, CEC Saar & ASW*) for the entire funding period (October 2026 to September 2027).
- The scholarship is independent of income and assets, does not affect BAföG (student financial aid) eligibility, and does not have to be repaid.
- Academic achievement is the primary criterion for selection. Family/personal background and community involvement are also taken into consideration.

students who began their studies in September 2021 or later are eligible to apply.*
